"This is Love," is Carolyn Riker's second, full-length book of poetry and prose. There are three sections where she conveys the art of self-love, how love is everywhere, and the invariable highs and lows of relationships. She writes about love from a field of colors as seen from her soul; it's not all pretty.

Carolyn Brown is becoming another of my favorite writers. Love her writing style and she can put you right in the middle of the landscape. Texas romance filled with characters that are strong willed and I really liked that about the characters she writes about, I read through this book pretty quick as it's not very long but a very fun read.
