After being frustrated by the results of his ministry, Rev. A.A. Allen locked himself in a closet to pray and fast until things changed. Jesus appeared to him and gave him a list of things in his life that needed to change before he could be used to perform miracles. This book is Allen's explanation of the items on that list. As Allen was, you can be mightily used by God to touch your generation if you're willing to pay the price of God's miracle-working power.

Want to live your dreams--or even surpass them? Want the world to change for the better? Want to see a miracle? What are we waiting for? Why not be the miracle? That's the challenge Regina Brett sets forth in BE THE MIRACLE. To be a miracle doesn't necessarily mean tackling problems across the globe. It means making a difference, believing change is possible, even in your own living room, cubicle, neighborhood, or family. Through a collection of inspirational essays, Regina shares lessons that will help people make a difference in the world around them. The lessons come from Regina's life experience and from the lives of others, especially those she has met in her 24 years as a journalist. Each chapter is a lesson that can stand alone, but together they form a handbook for seeing the miracle of change everywhere. With upbeat lessons from "Do Your Best and Forget the Rest" to "Sometimes It's Enough to Make One Person Happy," these lessons will help you accept and embrace yourself, challenge and change yourself, and better serve others.

Have you heard of prayer, but wondered, what's the point?
